Brand-It™

• CUSTOM HANG TAGS

Brand-It™ Custom Hang Tags are a great way to promote your brand's unique selling points and limited-time offers. With eye-catching graphics, your product will be front and center for all to see.

Unlike string labels, they will remain on the object if moved in transit. The custom extruded silicone band will hold the tag upright and in place from production all the way to the shelf!

Brand-It™ Custom Hang Tags:

- Convey your brand's unique selling points even if the sales floor staff is not up to speed on the product.
- Allow you to emphasize the story about your product.
- Promote information that might not be seen on the back of the product label.
- Allow for promotional offers which are not allowed on the label.
