

PONYTAIL & BRAIDING BANDS

Ponytail & Braiding Bands

We make bands to “hold your world together” and that includes ponytails! Our ponytail & braiding bands are ideal for hair care, and are available in rubber, silicone and plastic.

WHETHER THEY ARE:

For the simple beginning of a more dramatic look.

For men and women sporting long hair,
to keep it out of their faces at work or play.

For kids of all ages
simply because they make all ages look more carefree and adorable.

For our four-footed friends
to look their best at shows or at home.

From rubber bands that are necessary for super fine hair, to silicone and plastic ponytail bands that slide on and off more easily to take the “ouch” out of your fashion look - we can manufacture to meet your packaging needs without putting an “ouch” on your pocketbook.

VALUE

When it comes to rubber, silicone, and plastic bands you simply can't beat the price. Compared to other hair ties (such as fabric or elastics) you're getting a better hold at 1/10th the cost.
